

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Dorothy Ridgway has dedicated the last 45 years of her life to the Division of Motor Vehicles; and,

WHEREAS, For almost a half a century, Dorothy Ridgway has befriended the befuddled, consoled the confused, and enlightened the frightened when it came to motor vehicle titling and tax questions; and,

WHEREAS, Dorothy Ridgway has been an inspiration to all who have come in contact with her and has shared her many years of experience to teach and guide state employees to carry on a tradition of providing the very best service possible to the citizens of South Dakota; and,

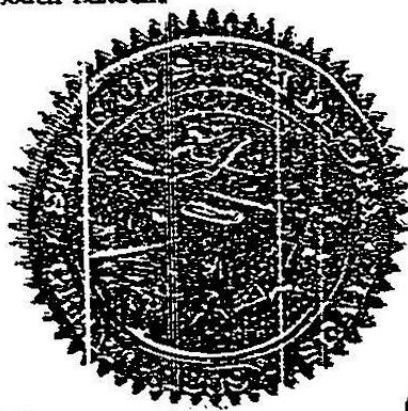

WHEREAS, Dorothy Ridgway has been a loyal and dedicated employee who has been an invaluable asset to the State of South Dakota and revered by her fellow co-workers who will feel a great void by her absence; and,

WHEREAS, This summer, after 45 years of service to the state, Dorothy Ridgway is retiring from state government to a "title free" life of luxury; a relaxing life which we all know she has earned and greatly deserves:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 29, 1987, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-seventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
